AIR AVIA AVIATION SERVICES

Air Avia can help new and established aviation companies in their growth-planning and expansions, assist management decisions in matters such as staffing, aircraft purchase and use of charter / fractional operations.

David Antrobus is ideally qualified to assist private owners either considering purchase or operations of their own aircraft, providing a totally impartial opinion, expertise and quality assurance for the owner.

Air Avia can advise and/or provide practical help on:

- Aircraft charter or lease
- Aircraft selection, purchase importation, certification and registration.
- Finance and insurance.
- Staff and crew selection, interviewing, employment and monitoring.
- Arranging / monitoring aircrew training.
- Arranging / monitoring maintenance sub-contractors.
- Assessing / arranging "commercial use" of aircraft.
- FBO design and operation world wide.
- Overall quality assurance.
